Windmill

This sweet little pin adds a delicate touch of color. Wear it as a unique fashion accessory, or slide a bobby pin through it and Windmill becomes a pretty hair decoration. You can even add a ribbon loop and turn Windmill into a colorful hanging ornament or gift bow.

Pin

1. Cut nine squares of fabric measuring 2" × 2". Fold in half diagonally and pin. Fold again and pin twice as shown.

Step 1

SELECTIONS

Fabric: up to three selections of silk or cotton

Beads: seven seed beads

1/8" ribbon (optional)

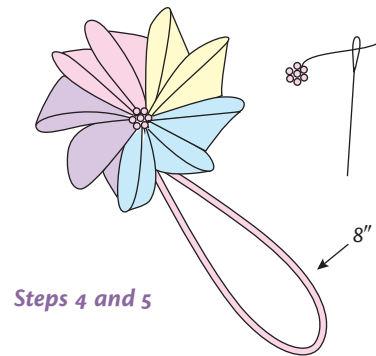

Sew-on safety clasp or bobby pin (optional)

Step 2

Step 3

Steps 4 and 5

2. Layer all nine folded triangles as shown. About $\frac{1}{4}$ " from tip A, pull knotted thread through layers, one at a time. Stitch to hold. Repeat at tip B.

3. Pull four petals downwards and other petals upwards. Gently separate them to create windmill shape, hiding tips A and B at center. Raw edges of pieces should all be hidden.

4. If desired, make a hanging loop from an 8" length of $\frac{1}{8}$ " silk ribbon. Fold in half and sew ends to center front of windmill.

5. Sew seed beads to center of windmill. If desired, stitch sew-on clasp or bobby pin to back.
